The image shows a musical score for the ending of the song 'Until Then'. It is a lead sheet, meaning it contains the melody and chord symbols. The music is written on a single staff in G-flat major (three flats: B-flat, E-flat, A-flat). The key signature is indicated by the three flats at the beginning of the staff. The time signature is not explicitly shown but is 4/4 based on the notation. The score starts at measure 37. The first measure contains a half note G-flat (the first line of the staff) and is labeled 'home.' below it. The next six measures are part of a 'TURNAROUND to Verse' section. Each measure contains a half note and a chord symbol above it: D-flat (second line), Ddim⁷ (third line), A-flat/E-flat (third space), C m /E-flat (third space), E-flat⁷ (third space), and A-flat (third space). The seventh measure is a double bar line with repeat dots. The eighth measure contains a half note G-flat and is labeled 'home.' below it. The final measure contains a half note G-flat and a diamond-shaped ending symbol. The word 'ENDING' is written above the final measure.
